Om EOD-projektet

“eBooks on Demand” (EOD) – på dansk “eBøger on Demand” – er et europæisk samarbejdsprojektet, der blev indledt i 2006. Det omfatter 14 national- og universitetsbiblioteker fra hele Europa og finansieringen sker bl.a. via EU.

Projektet har gjort det muligt for brugere af Det Kongelige Bibliotek at bestille ældre bøger som eBøger på nettet via REX. På længere sigt vil brugere på denne måde få adgang til millioner af bøger på nettet fra europæiske biblioteker leveret i digital form som søgbare PDF-filer – såkaldte eBøger.
