7th Oct. 1919.

My dear Professor Simonsen,

I duly received your letter of the 18th and have since seen John and Gladys who told me of their pleasant meeting with you.

I am much concerned to learn that you have sent me letters and books which I have not received. I need not say that I always acknowledge your letters promptly. I shall be glad if you will send me on the numbers of the Z.f.h.B. which you have for me.

I have written you during the War on the,

Dr. Duschinski has moved. His present address is 257 Goldhawk Terrace N.W. 6

I do not see that once Peace has been ratified there will be any objection to the old members belonging to the Entante Countries resuming their association with those of our former enemies in a matter which is purely literary and Jewish.

I cordially reciprocate Madame Simonsen's and your good wishes for the New Year.

Au revoir.

Yours sincerely,
